DEMOCRATIC MUD SLINGING.

Special Correspondence to GAZETTE.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12th.

It is learned from a reliable source that the Democratic State Committee intends to inaugurate a mud-slinging campaign. Beginning this week it is proposed to circulate thousands of copies of the New York World and the New York Evening Post, which will be filled with slanderous attacks upon the Republican candidates. This plan of campaign has been decided upon at a conference in this city, of Democratic bosses, at the inspiration of Harrity who has already enlisted the same newspaper influences against that estimable gentleman, George D. McCreary, the Republican candidate for City Treasurer. Knowing that not a single paper in this city would say one word against Mr. McCreary, who is a well-known business man, and whose reputation as a philanthropist is known throughout the State, the Democratic leaders have gone to New York, from which point they have started in with their assaults. The same tactics are to be resorted to in this State. The Democratic papers are expected to reproduce the slanders originated by the New York journals. The campaign of vilification and mud-throwing is already for launching; but it is believed that with a knowledge of the source from which they emanate, the people will know how to fully estimate their value.

A PROUD RECORD.

No man in public life in Pennsylvania is better or more favorably known to the farmers of the state than ex-Auditor General Jerome B. Niles, of Tioga county. He has been prominent in their councils and time and time again fought their battles for equalization of taxation. Through the medium of the Republican party the efforts of General Niles and those acting with him have not been in vain.

In a very thoughtful interview General Niles tells what has been accomplished by the Republican party in reducing the greater interests of the burdens of taxation, and points out why every farmer should vote for both Gregg and Morrison, the Republican candidates for auditor general and state treasurer, respectively, at next month's election.

"I desire to preface my answer as to the reason why farmers and real estate owners," said ex-Auditor General Niles, "should support the Republican state ticket by a short reference to the past. Our party came into power in Pennsylvania in 1880. For many years, with slight interruption, the Republican party has practically been in control of the various departments of the state government. We found the nation confronted with a gigantic rebellion, business prostrated and public confidence generally everywhere destroyed.

"At that time the state was burdened by a debt of from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000, and for which it had but very little to show. The years succeeding 1880 are marked with too mighty events to be soon forgotten. To meet the demands of our imperiled country, burdens heavy were imposed upon the people. Many tens of millions of dollars were raised in this commonwealth by taxation to pay the interest, and to sustain the army. During all these years the leaders of the party promised that when peace came again, the burdens imposed by the war should be lifted from the people, as far as possible, consistent with the safety of the state. In furtherance of this promise, the Republican party, in 1890, providing, 'Section 4, from and after the passage of this act the real estate of this commonwealth shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes.' (P. L., 1890, page 68). So far as I know, for this time, real estate has at all times paid taxes for state purposes. In pursuance of this policy of relieving the people of the burden of the state government an act was passed and approved on June 3, 1871 (P. L., 281), repealing the act which imposed a tax of 1 per cent. on incomes of tradesmen, occupations and professions over $200. Again, by an act approved March 21, 1876, the law imposing taxes upon mill, mine, quarry, and other property for state purposes was repealed. (P. L., 1876, page 48).

RELIEF FROM TAXATION.

"It will be noticed that since those years all real estate, all trades occupations and professions, and all other property have been relieved from the bur-

ALMOST ANYTHING BUT A FARMER.

Reports continue to come to the Republican state headquarters of the disreputable efforts, boss Harrity is making to capture the farmer vote for his deputy secretary of the commonwealth, Tilden, whom he had nominated for state treasurer. The mask has been torn from his scheme, however, to have the Democratic party nominate an organization of non-farmers, and to have the Democratic ticket, with the hope that some unsophisticated Republicans might be hoodwinked into joining the so-called "non-farmer" organizations, and to have the Democratic party, as Tilden himself has been persuaded to vote the Democratic ticket.

The farmers, Harrity discovered, are not so easily fooled. The wily Democratic party has now instructed all the campaign speakers to refer to his man Tilden as "the farmers' candidate for state treasurer." In his literary bureau which he is running as he did in the last campaign, he has made it appear as though this man, who is practically his chief clerk, is a horny handed tiller of the soil.

Harrity has made just one mistake here. He neglected to "edit" the biographical sketch of his candidate, which Chairman Kerr sent out from the Democratic state headquarters in his absence.

Reference to this will show that Tilden has been almost everything else but a farmer. Here are some facts gleaned from this biography:

He started in the lumber business. Next he acted as an oil operator. Then as a railroad purchasing agent. A wholesale spice merchant next. County commissioner for two terms after that.

Then he ran for congress. And now he is Harrity's deputy secretary of the commonwealth.

When was he a farmer? His sketch tells us he owned a few acres of land which he had cultivated "while he ran the lumber business."

He is now "farming" the stump while the farmers pay his fat salary in Harrity's office.

The real farmers of Pennsylvania are not being entrapped into the Democratic camp to vote for a "farmer" candidate like this one that Harrity has set out to capture the state treasury, with which he hopes to strengthen his Democratic position.

Farmers of Pennsylvania know that their interests lie with the Republican party. They are not being caught by boss Harrity's tricky game.

Gen. Goff on Republican Patriotism.

General Nathan Goff, of West Virginia, who called on Chairman Watson last week and asked to be allowed to make a few speeches for the Pennsylvania Republicans' "soldier ticket," he being personally acquainted with both General Gregg and Captain Morrison, is admittedly one of the strongest speakers on the stump.

"I can always tell a Republican meeting before I hear a word uttered from the platform," remarked General Goff, smilingly, to a friend the other day. "You can tell it by the music and the words. When a Republican meeting, instead of the inspiring air, 'The Star Spangled Banner,' the band would be playing 'Annie Rooney.'"

Instead of hymns of patriotism you would hear the dismal wail, 'Listen to My Tale of Woe.'"

CAMPAIGN CHAT.

Fraternity means something, and, all things being equal, soldiers prefer one another.

Pennsylvania Republicans are in better shape than for years—united, cordial and in high spirits. They feel that this is their year, and the news from Ohio confirms them in that feeling.

Gregg and Morrison, the representatives of former party lines, are being formed in every part of the state. We hear of several cases where the officers of the clubs belong to other parties.

There are a great many Democratic soldiers who do not let their party feelings smother the patriotism to the extent of voting for stay at home copperheads in preference to their brave comrades, and we honor them for it.

THE TAMMANY TIGER.

A very significant interest is manifested by certain New York Democrats in the result of next month's election in Pennsylvania. Developments of the last two weeks' show that a close relationship exists between the managers of the Democratic campaigns in these two states.

It is remarkable that not a few of the big names in Tammany Hall have recently heard booming Paterson for '92.
The air is filled with rumors of an alleged understanding, or deal, by which the young Democratic Governor of the Keystone state is to be made the choice of the stalwart Democratic braves of the Tammany tribe. Big Chief Croker, while seated in the Hoffman house cafe a night or two ago, chatting with a friend, was heard to remark: "I tell you, Paterson is the coming man. You might as well buckle down to that fact right now. Tammany can name the winner in the next national convention if it will let Paterson alone. If we carry Pennsylvania this time."

TAMMANY BRIVES BOOM PATTERSON.
This is but a specimen talk of what can be heard almost any time at the nightly gatherings of Tammany men hereabouts. One of the most influential members of the organization is quoted as saying that in the event of the election of the Democratic state ticket in Pennsylvania nothing can prevent Paterson's nomination for president next year. He argued that Hill practically took himself out of the race when he accepted the election to the United States senate. Had he decided to run for re-election he would have been elected, he would undoubtedly head the national ticket in '92. Tammany will never consent to Cleveland, but will, however, insist upon gaining the presidency, and Tammany's eye is on the Hill now.

The argument is made that for Tammany to pick a man outside of the state would guarantee his getting the loyal support of the Democratic organization of the city and state of New York.
Nobody looks for Campbell to beat Mc-Kinley in Ohio. Paterson is therefore regarded as the best outside man, but not one who is available. It is necessary that the Democratic party shall win in Pennsylvania this fall.

The interest taken by Tammany in the political contest in the Keystone state is thus clearly demonstrated. The chief of state, William F. Harris, is credited with having engineered the deal in the young Governor's behalf. Several messengers from Harris have been over here on secret missions lately. It is known that prominent importers have been solicited to contribute to a fund to help along the Democratic campaign in Pennsylvania. Some of the highway robbers who are a big figure in directing Tammany's movements have been chipped in pretty liberally for the same cause.

A NEW YORK PAPER BUREAU.

The deal between Tammany and the Paterson administration was first noticed about in Newspaper Row, when it became known that large orders had been placed by local Democrats for extra editions of The World and Evening Post for distribution in Pennsylvania during this campaign. These editions will devote considerable space to the Barclay defalcation matter and particular attacks upon Republican state officials. It is understood that the details of Barclay's operations in the office of city treasurer will be rehearsed, and no opportunity will be missed to create impression that the Republican party is corrupt and should have no standing before the people. These papers are to be distributed gratuitously by the Democratic state committee, but will be mailed from this city.

Now that there is no secret about the Tammany-Paterson deal, an effort is being made to get the unwelcome word, which has been supporting Cleveland, now taken up by Paterson. With this in view, negotiations have been opened with leaders of the element, and it is expected that Harris will be able to get some generously drawn checks for his campaign fund from this quarter if this scheme shall prove successful.

THE SAME REPUBLICAN CRY.
"Fassett is conducting a glorious campaign in New York," says ex-Chairman Cooper. "His battle cry is property, prosperity, sound currency, and the same cry is being taken up by the Republicans of every state in the Union. These are the higher issues, the national ones, and they deserve just as much support from Pennsylvania as from any other state. Let us give it in the shape of 60,000 majority for Gregg and Morrison."

Townsend & Sherman, two young men of our borough, have opened the restaurant under Tyler's clothing store, and are doing a good business.
They have first-class oysters, which they will deliver to their customers at

A Hard Corner.
The age of 30 is a hard corner for a woman to turn, and 35 is a harder one. She feels that she is fast losing her youth and beauty.
But there is no reason why a woman should be faded and pass at 35, or even at 40.
The chief cause of the early fading of American women is found in the fact that many of them are not properly nourished. They are weak, and draw dry curls about the eyes, bring early wrinkles and sallowness, and stamp the face and figure with signs of ill-health. Dr. Parke's Food, gives strength and cures all these troubles, will bring back the lost bloom, and remove the pains and ailments which make women grow old before their time. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or price ($1) refunded.

I AM AN OLD MAN.
I shall be 79 years of age next June, and for the last six years have suffered from general debility, indigestion, and nervousness. I could not get on my feet without help. I considered taking Sulphur Bitters. In a week I felt stronger and got a mighty fine appetite. I still continued then, and to-day I walked over several miles without feeling tired. I think I haven't done in five years before.
Sulphur Bitters is a right smart medicine.—
